

The Football Bear By Tom Crist

One day my favorite player was on T.V. He was black and yellow. His name was Champ Bailey. He was quarterback. He threw the ball and it was incomplete. It was third down and ten they have to make a first down. He threw it again and they made a touch down. They won the game! They won by one point. That is amazing! Their third super bowl in a row!